Directions:

1. Preheat the oven to 400°F.
2. Mix all the meatball ingredients, (beef, pork sesame oil, breadcrumbs, ginger, garlic, eggs, and scallions), together in a large bowl.
3. With a small scoop or spoon, form small balls about 1-inch in diameter. Place on a lightly oiled rimmed baking sheet, and bake in the hot oven for 14-16 minutes or until cooked through. (This step may be accomplished a day ahead of time and the meatballs refrigerated or frozen for up to a month.)
4. Prepare the glaze by combining the soy sauce, water, rice wine vinegar and sesame oil in a small saucepan and bring to a boil. Mix the cornstarch in a small amount of water to make a slurry. Add to the boiling mixture and whisk until thickened. Pour over the baked meatballs.
5. Whisk the sauce ingredients together when ready to serve. Serve the sauce as a bed for the meatballs or on the side. Spear each meatball with a cocktail pick and place on a presentation plate for serving. Garnish, if desired with additional scallion and chopped peanuts.
